

Creating Web Content (CSC-111)

Lecture 1: Introduction and Orientation

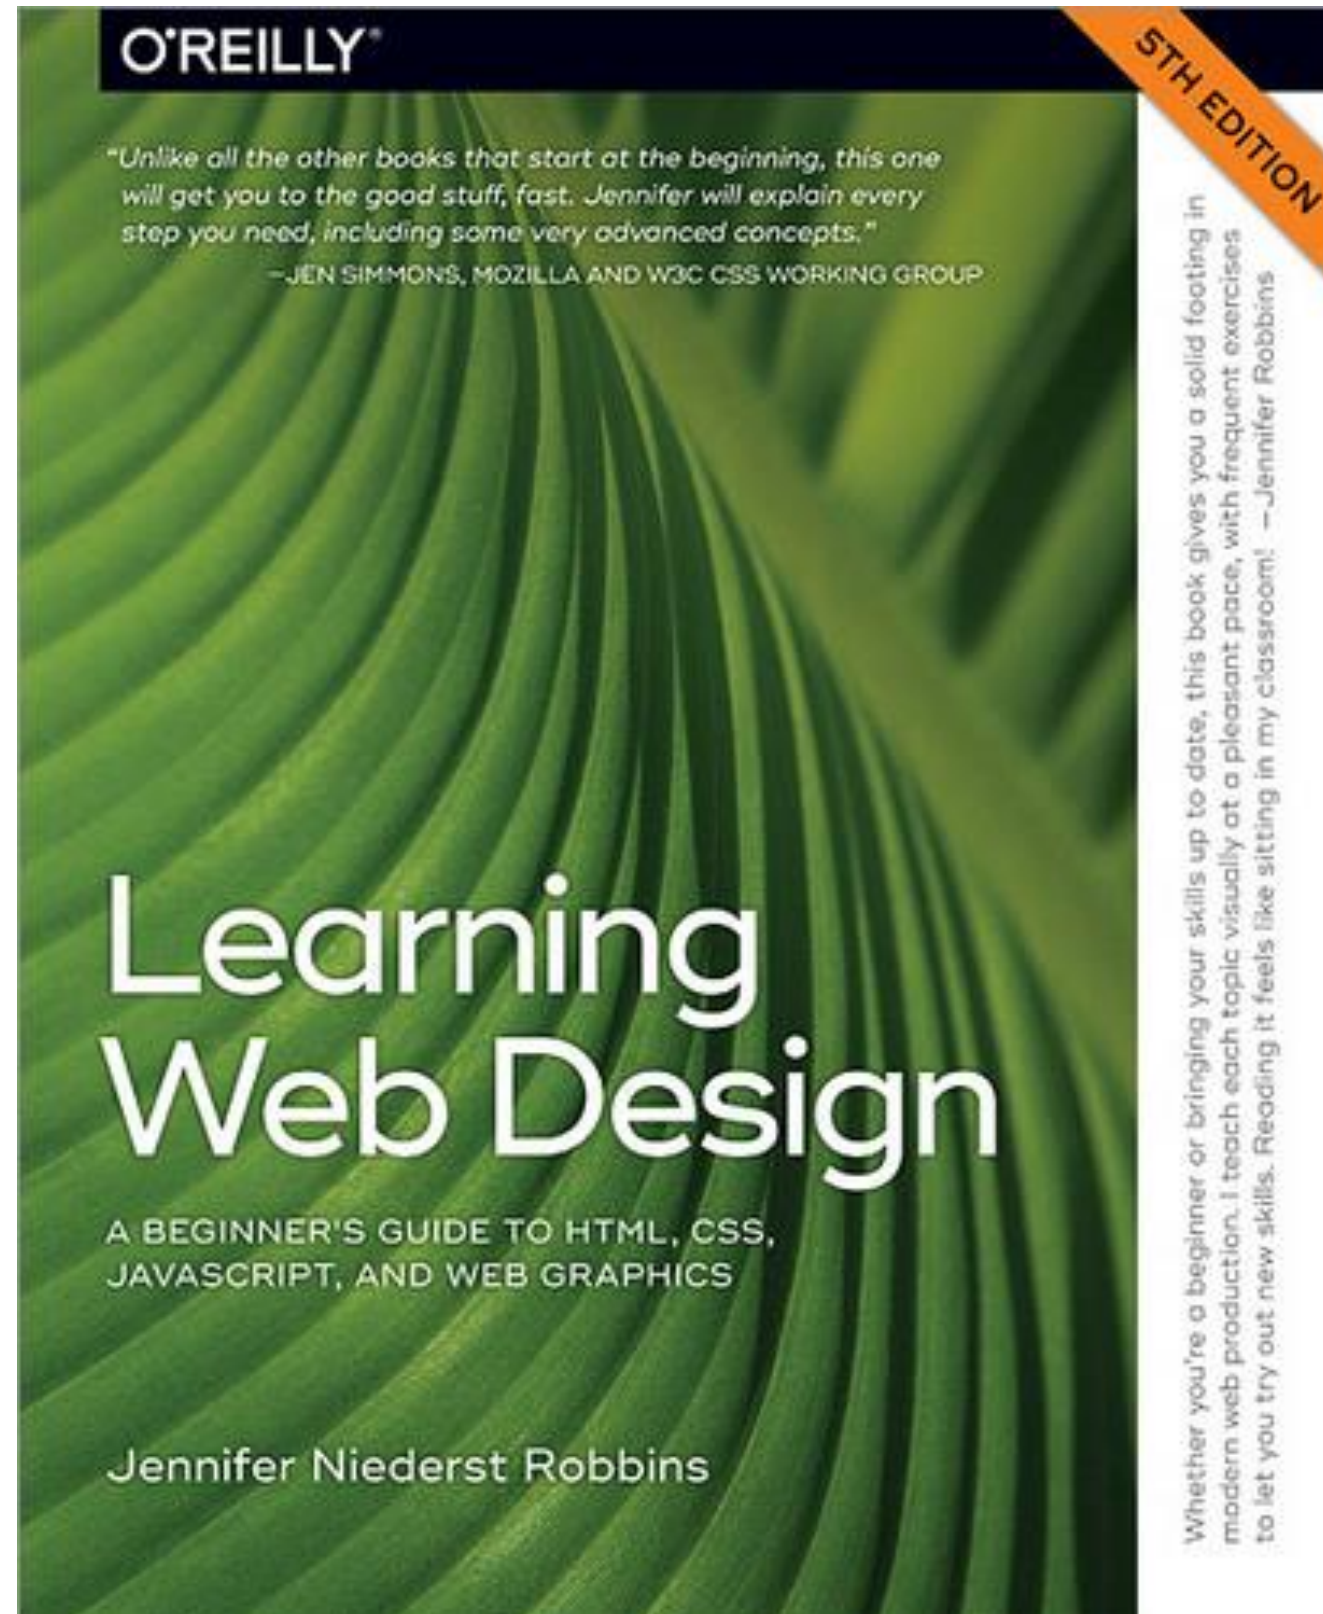

Course Objective

- Introduction to web pages and other web content in terms of
 - Creation
 - Design
 - Publication
 - Promotion
- Development of a website

Learning Outcome

- An appreciation of the power of the World Wide Web
- Ability to create quality content for the World Wide Web
- Ability to project created content to a large audience

Text Book

Course Format

- 3 credit hour course
- Weekly
 - 2 lectures

Course outline overview

- How the Web works
- Structuring web content using HTML
- Styling web content using CSS

Division of Marks

● Class Tests	(3)	15
● Assignments	(3)	10
● Mid Term Tests	(2)	25
● Project		10
● Final Exam		40

Administrative Info

- Be careful with attendance
 - Check your status regularly on CMS
 - You The attendance will be marked within 15 minutes of the start of class. Late is treated as absent
 - Minimum attendance requirement is 75%
 - Keep an eye on your grades (on CMS) and request for a review if you note any discrepancy ASAP
 - Keep a record of all your assessment till your grade has been finalized (a photo record on your phone is sufficient)
 - All activities assigned in class or for home are marked and will contribute to your grade

Textbook, lecture slides, assignments, submissions, etc. will be uploaded on your google classroom and CMS. Join the classroom by using the following class code.

Note : You can join the classroom using your official Bnu email id's only.

Google Classroom Code: dlxndep

For queries, drop me an email at: nimra.abbas@bnu.edu.pk