Academic Explanation

This assignment demonstrates the use of Email Marketing, SMS Marketing, and basic Automation using Brevo's free features. Two email campaigns were created following an inverted pyramid structure with mobile-friendly layouts and clear calls-to-action. A compliant promotional SMS was designed to support cross-channel engagement. A simple automation workflow was implemented to automatically send a welcome email upon subscriber sign-up. Additionally, a contact list and interest-based segment were created to support basic audience targeting. All activities strictly adhere to free tool limitations and realistic digital marketing practices.
